

Summary

Survey ID: 18

Gender: Male

Age: 61

Location: Malda, West Bengal

No of household members: 3

The Person has an extremely high PSS scale: 37. The person is a surgeon and is worried because patients had stopped coming to nursing home due to Covid- 19 which had stopped his practice. The person is also a heart patient. So, he has to take live saving medicine regularly. He claims the medical supply has not stopped due to the lockdown situation. He exercises regularly. The person visits the nursing home once in a day. The person gathers information from government whether the nursing home beds will be allocated to covid-19 patients. The person keeps track of ongoing events from newspapers and TV. Since he is a doctor, he reads medical books in the evening. He is patiently waiting for the lockdown to get over so that he can start his practice which is surgery. The person is unhappy because he cannot go to religious places and cannot celebrate Bengali new year. The person is helping his wife in household chores by learning how to mop. The person rarely gets time to meet with his son, which has increased due to lockdown.

Personality Test Type: The person Belongs mainly to conscientiousness and agreeableness category.

Short Big Five Test

Your scores:

