

Summary

Survey ID: 16

Gender: Female

Age: 52

Location: Malda, West Bengal, India

No of household members: 3

The Person has a high PSS scale: 35. She is going through a lot of stress. She is the owner of a nursing home which is going at a loss due to the current lockdown situation. On top of that she is worried about her son, because of the upcoming medical entrance exams which is getting constantly postponed. She is making constant food arrangement for her sons, so his studies do not get hampered. On top of that she has to cook food for the family every day. She is dividing up her household work with her husband. She is keeping track of the current lockdown (covid-19) situation from internet. She is digitally quite competent using Whatsapp, Facebook and various social media and video conferencing for keeping in touch with people using phone and tablet. She does exercise every. She suffers from hypertension and thyroid, so she has to take medicine. She likes photography and experimenting and learning new things like bottle painting and cutting her husband's hair. She loves reading books. She complains about not having flower supply to perform religious activities.

Personality Test Type: The person Belongs mainly to neuroticism and agreeableness category.

Short Big Five Test

Your scores:

